

I am very happy with Indiana's no call law. Please do not alter it in any way. This law has greatly increased the quality of time that I spend with my family. I do not buy any thing from telamarketers and do not care to participate in their surveys. Please leave Indiana's no call law alone.